UNIVERSITY

TRANSFERABILITY: None. Note: BA 1110 and BA 1120 together are transferable.

PREREQUISITE: None.

INSTRUCTIONAL APPROACH:

The course will be offered as three hours instruction and two hours tutorial per week for a total of five hours per week. The allocation of instructional time and tutorial time will be at the individual Instructor's discretion.

For each topic listed below, there will be a classroom lecture/discussion and a demonstration of related accounting procedures. Relevant textbook readings, exercises and problems will be assigned. Weekly quizzes will be administered. Your knowledge, understanding and application of the material will be tested in three written examinations.

Regular classroom attendance is expected. Please do not be late. Assigned reading materials should be studied both before and after it is discussed in class. Your understanding should be applied by performing the assigned homework problems. Ask questions in class, especially about any topics where you are confused or uncertain. The Instructors will be available during office hours to further assist students.

This course requires considerable time and effort on the part of students, so the adoption and adherence to effective learning habits is essential. It is difficult to catch up once a student falls behind in readings and problems.

COURSE
DESCRIPTION:

This course, in conjunction with BA 1120, provides an introduction to accounting procedures and financial statements, and their underlying concepts and principles. Within this framework, accounting practice is integrated with the development of accounting information for effective decision making.

This is a course in Accounting, not Income Taxation, therefore, specific Income Tax rules, practices, definitions, considerations and consequences are irrelevant.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

To develop an ability to analyze and record economic transactions in basic accounting format.

To acquaint the student with the accounting process, its terminology, and the information that it generates.

To introduce generally accepted accounting principles, standards and problems of valuation, income measurement and disclosure in financial statements.

GRADING:

Attendance, participation:	5%
Hand in assignments, quizzes	20%
Major Test I	20%
Major Test II	20%

	100%

COURSE CONTENT:

Text Chapters 1 through 10. Problems and cases from the text and from related materials that may be distributed during the term.

An understanding of the accounting process with organizations is integral to a well-rounded program of business studies. This understanding will be useful, as confirmed by the business community, in any career option that the student chooses and serves as an academic base for further studies in accounting.

Students are encouraged to discuss this course with the applicable Instructor at any time.

POLICIES:

- 1) Assignments will be due at the BEGINNING of Class on the due date.
