

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

COURSE OUTLINE – Spring 2024

HS 1000 – A4: Interpersonal Communication – 2 (3-0-0) 30 Hours 10 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENT LEARNING

It is the right of the student and of the instructor to a favorable learning/teaching environment. It is the responsibility of the student and the instructor to engage in appropriate adult behaviors that positively support learning. This includes treating others with dignity and respect and following the expectations outlined below.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Attendance: Students are expected to attend class and engage in class activities and discussions. A participation mark of 10% is attributed to this class and will reflect your engagement in these areas. Class begins promptly on time, and it is expected that students arrive on time for class and leave only when class is finished.
 - If you are unable to make class, communication is key. Please let me know as soon as possible via email.
 - If an absent is marked during dates where there will be an assignment and no communication has been made, then that assignment mark will result in a zero.

- If any unforeseen circumstance arises such as illness, family emergency, etc, on days when large assignments and/or quizzes are due, you must notify me prior to class beginning and a medical note may be required.

- Student Engagement & Participation: It is expected that students engage in class discussions, have readings done before class and actively engage in learning. It is also important that students communicate with their classmates if classes are missed to catch up on any missed information that was shared during class.

- Student Writing: To synthesize the information learned in class, and to enhance your learning, it's important that you do your own writing, without using Chat-GPT or any other AI or language bot. Assignments found to have been created using AI/bots will not be graded. Whether students are permitted to rewrite/resubmit these assignments is at the instructor's discretion. AI-written papers may be subject to further penalties under the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy. Additional penalties may also be applied to your participation grade.

- Missed Material: Students are responsible for all missed material, including material missed due to legitimate/excused absences. Course material are posted to myClass, and further information can be obtained from classmates. If, after you have reviewed the class materials, you have questions, please contact me and I'll be pleased to assist you.

- Preferred Names and Pronouns: If you would like to be called a by a different name, abbreviation, or nickname, please let me know. Same applies to pronouns. I am more than willing to accommodate your choices, however, please remember I am human and will do my best to remember and honor your choices.

- Communication: Please keep communication lines open. Ask questions, email me, seek me out and let me know if you are struggling with class content or deadlines. I am more than willing to help you in your learning so you can soak up all that there is to learn. However, I cannot help you if I do not know you need help. Communication is key!
 - Further to the above point, it is important that you come to me with class material that you may need assistance with. It is not the responsibility of other instructors in the ELCC program to help you with content from this course. I do not bite. I can prove it when you come to see me regarding anything having to do with this course.

Northwestern Polytechnic expects students' conduct to be in accordance with basic rights and responsibilities. Please refer to the NWP calendar regarding rights and responsibilities.

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Academic Misconduct will not be tolerated. For a more precise definition of academic misconduct and its consequences, refer to the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy available at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/index.html>.

*Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Assignment Submission: Assignments are due at 11:59 pm Alberta time on the due date.
 - Assignments must be submitted via myClass. Assignments must be typed, unless otherwise discussed, double spaced in either New Times Roman size 12 font or Calibri size 11 font.
- Extensions: Extensions are granted only when student speaks to me before the due date. A new due date agreed upon by instructor and student will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Late penalties will begin to accrue after new due date.
- Office Hours: Office hours are listed on the first page of this document. No appointment is required. Drop ins are based on first come, first served basis.
 - Meeting outside of office hours is an option. Please make arrangements with me if this is needed. IF you are unable to make the newly scheduled meeting, please let me know asap via email.
- Grades: Although it is not impossible to receive a 100% on a major assignment, the likelihood is very small. I believe we are never done learning and reaching 100% means there is no room for improvement. Please understand that I am more interested in your learning than your grades, as you should be too.
- Important Note: How you do on assignments and in class has no bearing on how I view you as a person. Although marking can often be subjective, I do my utmost to grade the quality of the work. You are separate from your work, and we are all entitled to bad days.
