College Calendar Course Description:

This course examines the cultural, social and economic context in which political actors in Canada seek to protect and advance their interests and power. Attention is given to divisions or cleavages as well as unifying elements.

Topics will include language, culture, political culture, economic class cleavages, gender, ethnic diversity, political socialization and social movements, interest groups and Canada's external political environment provided by the United States and the rest of the world.

This course along with PO2210, Introduction to Canadian Political Institutions, Federalism and the Constitution, constitutes a full year introduction to Canadian politics. The two courses provide preparation (and serve as a prerequisite) for further studies in Canadian Politics at the postsecondary level.**

Prerequisite: There is no prerequisite for taking this course.

Course requirements:

Attendance and participation .....	10%
Short test on part I.....	15%
Midterm exam .....	25%
Term Paper.....	25%
Final exam .....	25%

You are expected to reference sources fully and properly for your term paper. An instructor's handout will provide assistance. See College Calendar, pp. 44-45, for information on penalties for cheating and plagiarism.

Students who miss an excessive number of classes may be denied the opportunity to write the final exam, as stated in the Calendar on p. 40.

** Successful completion of both PO2210 and PO2220 is needed to obtain credit for having taken the equivalent of POLS220 at the U. of A.

For information on key dates and other important matters, see the Calendar as well.

Note that you are required to write the final exam on the date scheduled by the College. Take this into account when making any December travel plans.

Marks will be given in percentage figures before conversion to a letter grade.

Conversion table:

A+ 90-100	B+ 76-79	C+ 67-69	D+ 55-59
A 85- 89	B 73-75	C 64-66	D 50-54
