Assignments and Grading

There will be four quizzes; each will be in a multiple choice format. The lowest written quiz is worth 2% and the top three written quizzes will be worth 6% each, for a total of 20%. If you miss a quiz without explanation, you will receive a “0” on this quiz, and it will be worth 6%. If you miss a quiz, but provide an acceptable explanation, the 6% will be transferred to the weight of the final exam.

2. Midterm and Final Exam

The midterm and final exams will include multiple-choice and short answer questions. The multiple choice questions are taken “primarily” from the test-bank and the short answer questions will be taken primarily from the lecture material. The final exam will not be cumulative; it will cover material from after the midterm to the end of term. The midterm and final exam are worth 30% and 35%, respectively.

The dates of the quizzes and midterm are listed on the following page. The date of the final exam will be announced by the Student Services office, but note that it will be between April 14 and April 24, 2007.

3. Attendance.

Attendance will be taken every class and will be worth 5% of your grade.

4. Chapter Assignments/Bonus Marks

There will be 8 multiple choice assignments, each comprised of 10 questions taken from Gazzaniga et.al. test bank. Each assignment is worth 1%; 5% will go towards your base grade. Anything accumulated over 5% will be considered bonus marks which will added to your final grade as bonus marks

Student Responsibilities

Lecture Attendance/Absences

Students are held accountable for all lecture and textbook material. It is your responsibility to keep up with class work. Therefore, you are expected to attend all lectures. Attendance will be taken every class. If you miss a class, your grade will be docked unless you provide an acceptable reason for missing the class (via email only). Email the explanation to me, writing "PY1050—missed class" in the subject box.

If you are absent from a class, all missed material is to be obtained by approaching a fellow student, not by getting the notes from the instructor. It would be very unfair for students who miss lectures to be advantaged by getting the instructor's notes. Typically, the quality of note-taking by students is quite variable. Therefore, if you miss a lecture and need to rely on another student as a source for the missed lecture material, it is advised that you pick your sources very carefully.

The notes for each chapter are available on "Blackboard". These are not the full notes; you need to attend the lectures to fill in the missing information.

Please note that according to GPRC policy, instructors reserve the right to bar a student from writing the final exam when the student is excessively absent from class (See page 43 of the calendar.)

Other Responsibilities

You are also expected to prepare for each lecture by reading the assigned chapters and handouts. Not surprisingly, students who prepare for lectures learn and perform much better than students who do not prepare.

Although the instructor feels that all the material in the text book is important and interesting, limited class time prevents discussion of all the material covered in the text. You are responsible for learning textbook material (assigned chapters only) that is not discussed in class. Please feel free to approach me outside of class if you wish to get clarification on this material.

Missed Exams

Dates for the quizzes and midterm are included on this course outline. Quizzes that are missed for any reason will not be rescheduled. If a student misses a quiz due to verified illness, dentistry, accident, emergency, or GPRC obligations (e.g., you are away due to the requirements of another course) the weight of the quiz will be transferred to the final exam. If a student misses a quiz for reasons that do not include verified illness, dentistry, accident, or emergency, then a "0" (zero) will be assigned to that quiz. Holidays, employment, etc. are not considered to be excusable reasons to miss any exam in this course. Missing any quiz without explanation from the student will result in a "0" on that quiz.

According to GPRC policy, deferring a missed Midterm Exam is at the discretion of the instructor. In my courses, students who miss a midterm because of illness, dentistry, accident, or emergency (verified) may write the midterm at a later date (set by the me). When students miss the midterm for reasons that do not include verified illness, dentistry, accident, or emergency, a "0" is assigned to that the midterm. Missing the midterm without explanation from the student will result in a "0" on the midterm.

Absences from a registrar-scheduled Final Exam fall under GPRC Examination Policy. It is the responsibility of the student to be informed about these policies prior to the final examination period. A description of the policy is available in the GPRC Calendar and in the Student Handbook. Yet again, final exams begin April 14 and end by April 24. These dates have been available to students for several months. Therefore, activities such as holidays or employment during this period are not considered excusable reasons for missing the final. Students who chose to miss the final exam for employment, holiday, or similar reasons will receive a "0" on the final. Also note that the final exam will not be scheduled early for students who plan their holidays or other activities during the final exam period.

If the final exam is missed due to illness, you will be required to submit an application to the Registrar's office for permission to write a deferred exam and must do so within 48 hours of the scheduled exam time. You may defer the final exam for up to 20 days of the end of the examination period. (Please see the College Calendar)
